

Plan of “Toyama Medical, Pharmaceutical & Health Information Library

○Masazumi Nasuhara (Sugitani Area Admin.Dpt. Univ.Toyama)

Toyama Prefecture and University of Toyama study and prepare for the project called “Toyama Medical, Pharmaceutical & Health Information Library : Hybrid Library” ; which all the people in Toyama freely utilize for the well-arranged medical and health information anywhere anytime; and which depends on the combination of the web information on the Internet with the actual information of University of Toyama; such as firstly, the library information of approximately two hundred thousand books and four thousand kinds of journal both foreign and domestic in its Medical and Pharmaceutical Library: secondly, the study source information of approximately twenty four thousand herbarium samples with the database: thirdly, the education, study, and medical treatment information of its Faculties of Medicine, Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences, Human Development, and its University Hospital each. For the industry of medical companies in Toyama, one of traditional and local industries, “Toyama Medical, Pharmaceutical & Health Information Library” is about to be organized to show the safeness of medicine by ”Toyama Drug Information Library” as the medical information service. On the symposium, we report the circumstances about the project above from the beginning to the now, its problems from now onward, and the rest.