

Pharmacist Education and International Exchange

Akio Kawabata (NIHONDO. Co. Ltd.)

During past 12 years we have been accepted pharmacists and students as a trainee from abroad including Japan. One thing I found is the differences between both students. Generally speaking , we pharmacist are said to be conservative and gentle.but on the contrary ,students from abroad are very vigorous and curious. I came to the conclusion that Japanese students are lack of power of communication.